ENGLISH DAILY ON FRIDAY

KAIST LANGUAGE CENTER

DAILY ENGLISH WEEK 1
11.6

- 7:00-8:00 AM
- 11:30-12:30 PM

"TOEFL Speaking Practice Session"

In this 1-hour session, students will learn about the TOEFL speaking exam by analyzing the official TOEFL scoring rubric, as well as tips and strategies for achieving a high score. Students will then be given the opportunity to practice a sample TOEFL Speaking test, along with direct feedback from the instructor. This course will act as a TOEFL Speaking practice session, and give students practice for the real exam.

DAILY ENGLISH WEEK 2
11.13

- 7:00-8:00 AM
- 11:30-12:30 PM

"Applying for a Job Overseas: The Perfect Resume/CV"

This course is designed to help students or people who may have to apply for an international job in their future. Students will find a position to apply for in their field, and we will study the materials required to get that job. In module 1, we will focus on improving our resumes, as well as analyzing the language used in many job applications. Further modules will include writing cover letters and online interview practice.

DAILY ENGLISH WEEK 3
11.20

- 7:00-8:00 AM
- 11:30-12:30 PM

"Applying for a Job Overseas: Writing a SOP/ Cover Letter"

In this course, students will learn tips and practice writing a cover letter for applying to an international job overseas. We will begin the course by looking at real-life job applications online, and analyze the language and requirements that they ask of applicants. We will discuss strategies for completing the application. We will then take a close look at cover letters, and some tips for writing them. Students can expect to get feedback in class for their writing from both instructors and students.

DAILY ENGLISH WEEK 4
11.27

- 7:00-8:00 AM
- 11:30-12:30 PM

"English Daily News"

In this session, students will have the opportunity to practice conversation with a Native English speaker regarding current events and things happening in the world. The first part of the session will involve collecting current events and news stories from around the world and discussing some of them in brief. We will then select 1 or 2 topics to speak in detail. Students should expect a highly interactive conversation course to practice English conversation. We will also look at common phrases used when discussing the news and current events.
