Presence and Engagement

Students must not only attend classes but also actively participate in activities and discussions. In addition to refraining from cell phone use and exclusively using English in class, students will show respect for their classmates and encourage their efforts by giving each other carefully considered feedback when called upon to do so. Our time together will go by very quickly, so we will work together to ensure each student makes the most progress possible.

When the Course Is Completed, Students Will Be Able To:

feel confident about the format of the TOEFL writing and speaking sections use a variety of effective test-taking strategies handle the 2 writing and 6 speaking prompts successfully
