

Class	Presentation Skills
Materials	The instructors and students will select a variety of authentic materials.
Level(s)	Intermediate Mid (IM) - Intermediate High (IH)
Class Description	Through participation in this course, students will be able to mitigate and overcome many of their fears regarding giving speeches (whether with or without PowerPoint slides). Students will learn a variety of important skills such as considering and catering to different types of audiences, creating attention-getting hooks, signaling/transitioning between ideas, using a range of body gestures and vocal variety, helping an audience understand complex concepts in simple/easily understandable ways, making effective conclusions, as well as handling Q&A sessions effectively after finishing the delivery of a speech.

- The detailed schedule will be provided on the first day of class.
