

2018 English Government Class Syllabus

Presentation Advanced	Day and Time	Saturday 11:00- 13:00	Duration	6th October - 24th November
Professor	Craig Ovenden	Email	cdogwangju@gmail.com
Textbook	There is no textbook but the course is based on 'Public Speaking: An Audience Centered Approach' by Steven and Susan Beebe'
Course objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To increase students' confidence about presenting ● To acquire the knowledge necessary to develop public-speaking skills and apply this during in-class presentations ● To gain experience and feedback by speaking in front of a supportive audience
Lesson	Topic
1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Know your audience ● Central idea, purpose and structure
2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Presentations and feedback ● Analyzing your audience (I)
3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Analyzing your audience (II) ● Developing your speech (I)
4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Mid-Semester Assessment Task - Presentations ● Feedback ● Organizing your speech (I)
5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Organizing your speech (II) ● Introductions
6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Speaking Style and delivery ● Pretty persuasion
7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Final Assessment Task - Presentations ● Feedback
8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Overview, reflection and trouble-shooting workshop ● Self-development 			