

2019 English Composition Class Syllabus

Class	Composition English	Day and Time	Saturday 9:00-13:00	Period	May 18th ~ June 15th
Professor	Pierre Wall	Contact	010-6598-3536
Level	Intermediate B
Textbook	various
Course Objective	Intermediate students beginning the course will be introduced to new structures and will consolidate and expand on familiar structures. Students will be encouraged to self edit, as well as peer review written pieces.
Course Description	The instructor will provide a variety of resources some which will be based on the needs analysis taken at the beginning of the course Various textbooks based on levels on the CEF will used in the course.
Class Plan	Week	Topic
	1	Introduction and needs analysis
	2	. Writing about ourselves-Introduction letters. Exchanging personal information.
	3	Expressing needs- too much, not enough etc
	4	E-mails- introductions and register Negotiating- requests and refusals. Grammar focus : first conditional for deal making.
	5	Describing and predicting performance- changes: words for degrees of changes			