

English Conversation and Composition Class Syllabus

(weeks 1-15)

Class	English Conversation/	Day and Time	Saturday 9:00-13:00	Period	2019-Autumn
Professor	Pierre de Bhal	Email	pierrewall@yahoo.co.uk
Textbook	There is no text book but the grammatical themes are loosely based on English File Elementary 3 rd edition and supplementary material will be given based on a needs analysis.
Course objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◦ To provide lots of opportunities to speak using language appropriate for elementary learners.</li> <li>◦ To raise awareness of learner English</li> <li>◦ To introduce coping strategies.</li> <li>◦ To foster independent learning.</li> </ul>
Week	Topic
1	· Needs analysis- Getting to know you and learner English
2	Adverbs of frequency and habits
3	Describing things and order of adjectives
4	Comparatives and superlatives- comparing and contrasting

5	Daily habits and prepositions of time- in, on and at
6	Mid- term test
7	Number and dates/ exchanging information
8	Adjectives of personality and appearance/ describing people
9	Travelling around- requests and survival English
10	Family Relationships/ typical weekday and linkers
11	Weather and seasons/ recommending- modals
12	Experience- have you ever...?
13	Future plans- be going to/ be -ing
14	Peer review and peer teaching based on students notes from various weeks.
15	Final test